

Boston, June 14, 1866.

Dear Mrs. Chapman;

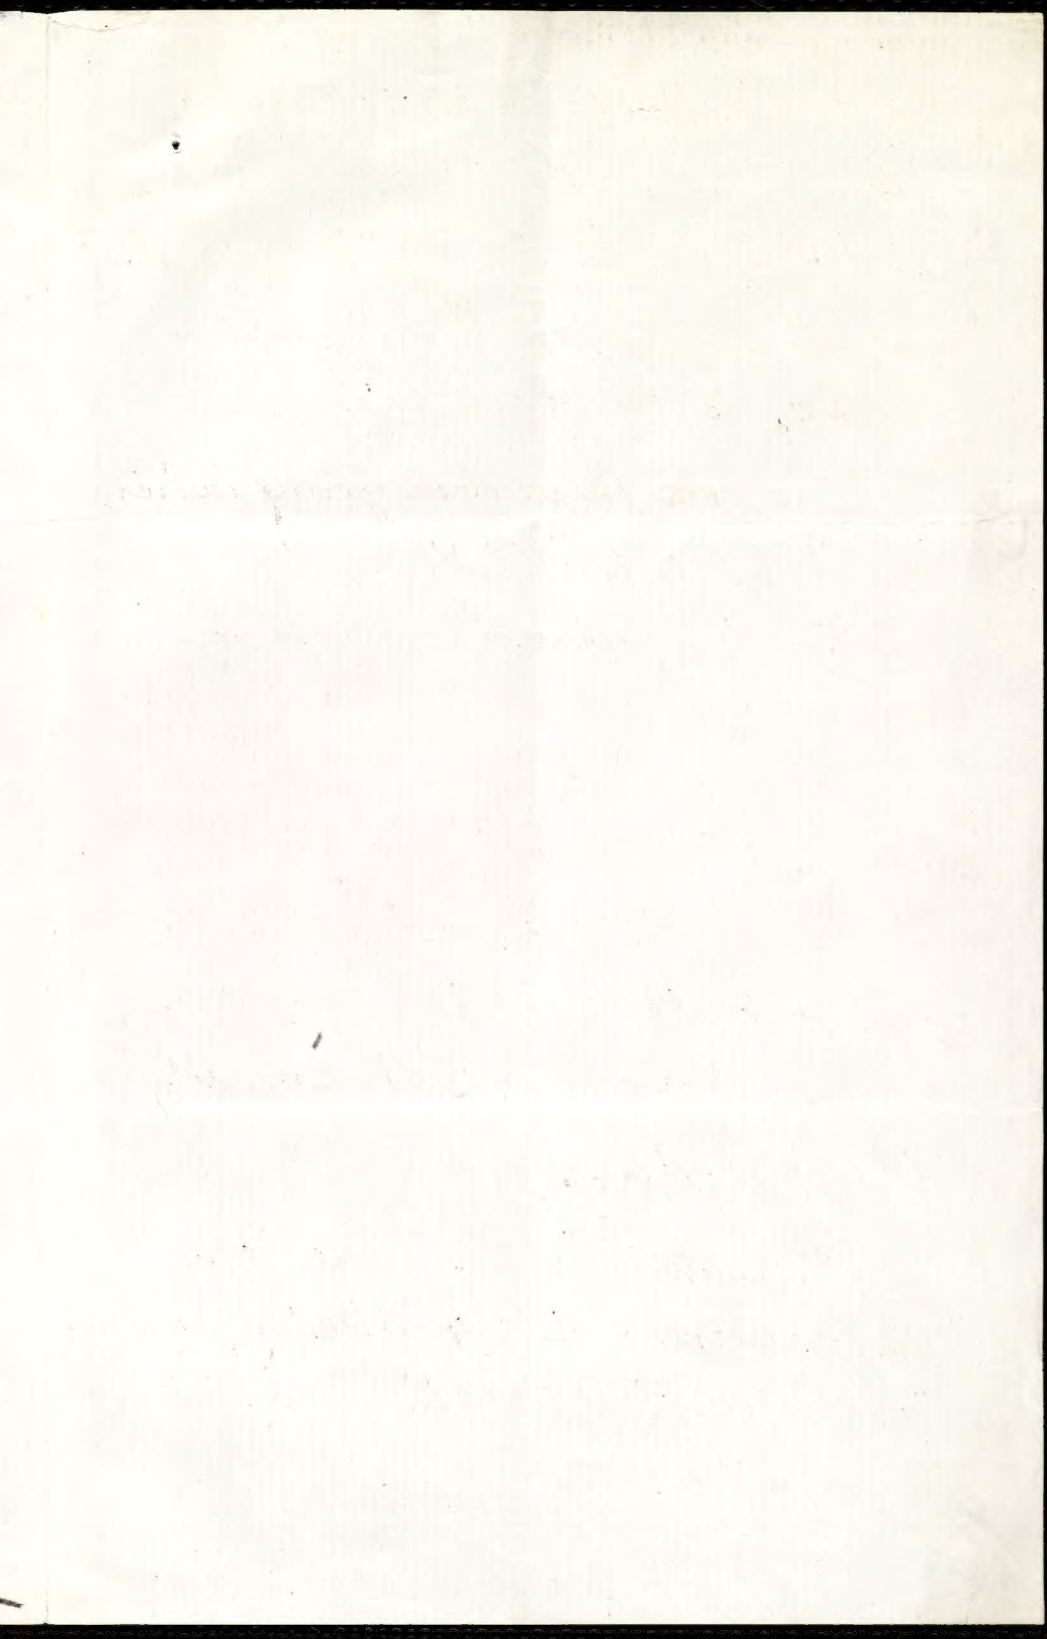

As I believe you were aware,
I was just leaving Boston for New York, (to see my son Edward for a few hours previous to his starting on a cruise to the Pacific Ocean), when I met you, on the 6th inst. leaving my father's house.
I have not been in ~~the city of~~ Boston again until to-day; but I desire to take this time, tho' seemingly late, to acknowledge your son Henry's very generous Contribution to the Testimonial in behalf of Mr. Garrison, and to offer to him, through you, the thanks of all the Committee for his valuable Co-operation.

And Mr. Quincy informs me today that he has already sent to Mr. Endicott the contribution of More. Langel, Fifty dollars, and that he has in his hands the contribution of your daughter Anne, of One hundred dollars, to the same object. -

To both these dear young ladies, who have so faithfully and intelligently emulated the brave example you gave them, and who so generously remember "their own friend, and their father's friend", - and mother is also, - I ask you to present the grateful respects of the Committee, which I can only so poorly express.

Your whole family have been most generous in this offering, and have effectively & promptly sustained the Committee. With sincere regard and respect. Yrs. Saml. May Jr.
